

CLERC Committees

FUND DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE:

This Committee reviews funding priorities and coordinates fundraising initiatives. Members are responsible for creating a fund development plan, identifying fundraising targets and planning special events including but not limited to the annual “Artful Bench and Bar” and biannual casinos.

YOUTH COMMUNICATIONS COMMITTEE:

COMMUNICATIONS COMMITTEE

This Committee is responsible for development of internal and external communication strategies and materials including pamphlets, the website and other promotional materials. It works closely with the Fund Development Committee to identify opportunities to build public awareness, develop media relations and coordinate events.

YOUTH ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The Youth Advisory Committee provides advice and recommendations to the Board on all matters conducted by the Society, and develop initiatives for young people in consultation with staff and the Board of Directors. This Committee particularly assists with communication and educational materials for young people. Members are young people under age twenty-five.

LEGAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE:

The Legal Advisory Committee provides advice and recommendations to the Board and staff on the legal services provided by the Society, particularly on procedural issues and on any articling or professional training programs developed by the Society. All members of the Committee are practicing lawyers and are available for consultation with CLERC staff on substantive legal issues.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE:

The Executive Committee is a sub-committee of the Board of Directors that meets regularly to oversee agency operations.

* All committees are comprised of staff, Board members and other community volunteers.
